Driver Information

To qualify for an Oregon driver license, instruction permit, or identification card you must be a resident of or domiciled in Oregon and be a United States citizen, permanent resident, or temporarily legally present in the United States. You will be required to provide proof of legal presence, full legal name and current residence address. See pages 9-11 for the identification requirements.

If you are a temporary resident in the United States applying for a driver license or identification card, you will be issued a limited-term driver license or identification card. A limited-term driver license or identification card will be valid for:

- Your authorized length of stay, but no longer than eight years from the date of issuance; or
- One year from the date of issuance if your length of stay is for an indefinite period of time.

If you are a temporary resident in the United States applying for a driver permit, you will be issued a limited term driver permit valid for:

- Your authorized length of stay, but no longer than the period of time for which the driver permit of the same type is issued for by the department; or
- One year from the date of issuance if your length of stay is for an indefinite period of time.

Class C Provisional License

- Drivers 16 and 17 years of age
- Subject to graduated licensing restrictions
- Eligible to drive the same vehicles as a class C non-commercial license

Fees: $60.00 Eight-year original issuance
 $25.00 Original limited term

- See page 6 for provisional licensing requirements.

Class C License

A Class C license allows a person who is at least 18 years old to drive:

- A car or any single vehicle (mopeds, passenger cars, vans, and pickups) with a loaded weight and gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) of not more than 26,000 pounds that is exempt from a commercial driver license (CDL) or motorcycle requirements
- A recreational vehicle—including motor homes and vehicles with campers—for personal use
- An emergency fire vehicle if operated by a firefighter
- An emergency vehicle if operated by a qualified emergency service volunteer

In addition, a holder of a Class C license may tow:

- A travel trailer for personal use
- A trailer with loaded weight or GVWR over 10,000 pounds, if the combined weight and GVWR of the towing vehicle and trailer is not more than 26,000 pounds
- See page 7 for testing fees
- Fees: $60.00 Eight-year original license issuance fee
$40.00 Eight-year renewal
$25.00 Original limited term license issuance fee
$10.00 Limited term renewal

Motorcycle Endorsement

- Licensed driver 16 years of age and older
- Pass a vision test
- Submit a course completion card from an approved motorcycle rider education course
- Fees will vary based on your current driving privilege

*Depending on the motorcycle rider education course completed, you may be required to take and pass the knowledge test

Restricted Motorcycle Endorsement

- Licensed driver 16 years of age or older
- Pass a vision test
- Pass the knowledge test
- Fees will vary depending on your current driving privileges.

Mandatory Motorcycle Rider Education

If you apply for an unrestricted motorcycle endorsement and you do not have a valid motorcycle endorsement from another state, you must complete an approved motorcycle rider education course:

Contact TEAM OREGON at www.team-oregon.org or call 800-545-9944 for information, fees or to sign up for a course.

Class C Instruction Permit

- Must be at least 15 years of age
- Pass the knowledge and vision test
- See page 7 for testing fees
- Issuance fee: $23.50

Motorcycle Instruction Permit

- Must be 16 years of age
- Have a valid Oregon driver license

- Pass the motorcycle knowledge test and vision test
- Issuance fee: $23.50

Provisional Driver Licensing Information

If you're under 18 years of age and getting your license for the first time, you must meet the following requirements:

Requirements

1. You must have had an instruction permit from Oregon, another state, or the District of Columbia, for at least six months. Temporary driver permits do not count toward the requirement to have an instruction permit for six months for a provisional driver license.
2. You must be able to certify that you have had at least 50 hours of driving experience while supervised by someone at least 21 years of age who has had a valid driver license for at least three years, AND show that you have completed an ODOT-approved driver education course; OR certify that you have had 100 hours of supervised driving experience.
3. Your parent or legal guardian must certify you meet school attendance or exemption requirements.
4. Your application must be signed by your parent or legal guardian.

NOTE: If you are under 18 and have been issued a driver license by another state and you surrender that license when applying for an Oregon driver license, you are not subject to requirements 1 and 2 above.

Commercial License or Commercial Learner Permit

- You must be at least 18 years of age to drive in intrastate commerce
- You must be at least 21 years of age to drive in interstate commerce
- Have a class C non-commercial or higher driver license

- Pass appropriate tests
- One year general driving experience if applying for commercial driver license
- Federal regulation 49 CFR 383.23(b)(1), prohibits issuance of a limited term commercial driver license or limited term commercial learner permit to temporary residents whose country of origin is Canada or Mexico
- DMV must receive and record a valid medical certificate and when required, a medical waiver or exemption
- Issuance fee:

|---------|--|
| $23.50 | Commercial learner permit |
| $75.50 | Commercial driver license |
| $61.50 | Commercial driver license renewal |
| $45.00 | Limited term commercial driver license |
| $14.00 | Limited term commercial driver license renewal |
| $23.50 | Limited term commercial driver learner permit |

Non-driver Identification Cards

- No minimum age limit
- Fees:

|---------|--|
| $44.50 | Eight-year issuance |
| $40.50 | Eight-year renewal |
| $20.00 | Original limited term ID card issuance |
| $18.00 | Limited term ID card renewal |

Testing Fees

You must pay test fees prior to testing. If you fail a written, drive, or skills test, you need to pay the test fee again each time you take the test. In addition, DMV requires you to present proof of identity and date of birth every time you test.

- | | | |
|-------|---------|---------------------------|
| Fees: | $5.00 | Class C knowledge test |
| | $10.00 | Commercial knowledge test |
| | $9.00 | Class C drive test |
| | $70.00 | Commercial skills test |

Check office hours prior to taking your test. Offices do not conduct knowledge tests if the applicant is not assisted at the counter at least one hour before closing times. In addition, smaller offices may close during lunch hours. www.oregondmv.com has more information on office testing hours.

Taking the Drive Test

- You must pass the knowledge and vision tests before you make an appointment for a behind the-wheel drive test.
- DMV may waive the drive test if:
 - A student between 15-17 years of age has successfully completed a program from an ODOT approved driver education provider and has been issued a completion card that waives the drive test. This card will be acceptable for up to two years from the issue date.
- If you have a valid out-of-state driver license, the drive test may be waived.
- Call to schedule your appointment for a drive test up to 30 days in advance or you may also take drive test scored by an approved business.
- You may also schedule a drive test through a Class C non-commercial third-party drive testing business.
 - For more information check DMV's website at: www.oregon.gov/ODOT/DMV

NOTE

DMV requires that you pay for tests in advance. If you are taking a test, please bring a separate payment (for example, two checks): one for your test(s) and one for issuing your license, or instruction permit.

Legal Presence Requirement

When you apply for an original, renewal, or replacement driver license, driver permit, or identification card, you are required to present proof of legal presence in the U.S.

ALL DOCUMENTS MUST BE ORIGINAL OR CERTIFIED COPIES. IF CERTIFIED, THE CERTIFICATION MUST BE FROM THE ISSUING AGENCY. PHOTOCOPIES ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE.

Be certain you know the most current acceptable proof of legal presence, identity, date of birth, full legal name, SSN and residence address before you come to DMV. Go to www.OregonDMV.com or call us.

NOTE

All documents submitted must be acceptable to DMV. DMV has discretion to require additional evidence to verify legal presence, full legal name, identity, date of birth, SSN, or current residence address.

Acceptable Documents For Proof of Legal Presence, Full Legal Name, Identity & Date of Birth

- A U.S. government-issued birth certificate:
 - DMV will not accept birth certificates issued by a non-Government agency, such as a hospital birth certificate, birth card, birth registration, or a baptismal certificate;
 - Laminated birth certificates are not acceptable.
- A U.S. consular Report of Birth Abroad (FS-240);
- A U.S. government-issued Certification of Birth (DS-1350 or FS-545);
- Request for Verification of Birth (DD372) must include verification from Vital Statistics with appropriate endorsements;
- Valid U.S. Passport or Passport Card, cannot be expired more than 5 years;
- Valid U.S. Territory Passport, cannot be expired more than 5 years;
- Tribal ID card from or affiliated with an Oregon federally recognized tribe, approved by DMV;
- Valid foreign passport, not expired, must include:
 - Arrival/Departure Record (I-94, CBP I-94A, current admittance stamp or I-797A) with appropriate entry endorsement;

- U.S. Department of Homeland Security documents, not expired:
 - Employment Authorization Document (I-766);
 - Certificate of Citizenship;
 - Resident Alien Card or Permanent Resident Card (I-551);
 - Certificate of Naturalization;
 - Permit to Re-enter (I-327);
 - Refugee Travel Document (I-571).

Full Legal Name

When you apply for a driver license, instruction permit, or identification card, you must use your full legal name. “Full legal name” is the name shown on your proof of identity and date of birth document. If your name is different than the name on your proof of identity document, you will be required to present additional documents. Acceptable documents include, but are not limited to, a government issued marriage certificate/license, divorce decree, judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage or domestic partnership, certificate of registered domestic partnership, adoption decree or a court order. Documents being presented must be original or a certified copy from the issuing agency.

Social Security Number Requirement

When you apply for an original, renewal, or replacement driver license, instruction permit, or identification card you are required to provide your Social Security Number (SSN) issued by the U.S. Social Security Administration (SSA) on the application.

If you are not eligible for a SSN, you must present proof of ineligibility and sign a Statement of Not Eligible for Social Security Number, Form 735-7255.

The SSN on an application is confidential information. It will not be printed on your driver license, permit, or identification card and will not be released on DMV records. Access to your SSN is allowed only to qualified government agencies.

Acceptable Documents for Proof of Ineligibility for SSN

Documents issued by the SSA, the Department of Homeland Security or other federal agencies or federal courts, which demonstrate you are not eligible for a SSN.

Proof of Residence Address

When you apply for a license, permit, or ID card you must provide proof of your current residence address. Oregon law allows you to use a mailing address, such as a post office box or business address, in addition to a residence address, but never in place of one.

Acceptable proof of your residence address includes:

- Mortgage document;
- Property tax statement;
- Mail from a verifiable business or government agency, (if mail is from Oregon DMV the resident and mailing address must be the same);
- Oregon vehicle title or registration card containing residence address only;
- Payment booklet;
- Voter registration, selective service, medical, or health card;
- Utility hookup order or statement of account;
- U.S. Educational institution transcript for the current year;
- Unexpired U.S. Government issued professional license;
- Oregon DMV address sticker with the same residence and mailing address.

Changing Your Address

- Notify DMV within 30 days of your move.
- Address changes can be done online at:
www.oregondmv.com

- Address forms are available at DMV office self-service counters and on the Internet.
- DMV will mail your new address label to you to place on your driver license, permit, or ID card.
- There is no fee for the address label.

Organ Transplant and Tissue Donation

- You may choose to have your driver license, permit or ID card coded with a “D” to identify you as a donor.
- You must be at least 15 years of age.
- There is no fee if you add the code when you renew your license. A $26.50 replacement fee is required to add the code between renewal periods for a license or permit.
- Inform your immediate relatives of your wishes.
- Ensure your intent to be a donor is known by registering at www.donatelifenw.org.

Veteran Designation

If you are a veteran you may request that DMV add a veteran designation on your license, permit or ID card at the time of application. You must present a Certification of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, Form DD214, or a Correction to DD214, Form DD215, which indicates you were discharged from the U.S. Armed Forces under honorable conditions.

Renewing Your Driving Privilege

- Application forms are available at DMV offices, through the mail, on the Internet at www.oregondmv.com or by calling (503) 945-5000.
- Renew at a DMV office.
- Bring applicable proof of identity and date of birth for the driving privilege you are renewing. Visit www.oregondmv.com.
- If your address has changed since your last renewal or replacement, bring in proof of your current residence address (see page 11).

- If you will be 50 years of age or older when your license expires, you will be required to take and pass a vision test.
- Fee: $40.00 Driver license
 $23.50 Instructor permit including limited term
 $10.00 Limited term driver license

Replacing a Driver License, or Permit,

DMV will issue a replacement driver license, permit, or identification card if:

- Your license, permit, or ID card is lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed; or
- Your residence address changed and you choose to get a new license; or
- You have a name change; or
- You are exchanging a valid-without-photo license for a license with a photograph; or
- You are replacing a license, or ID card issued with an error; or
- You are obtaining a license, or ID card after reinstatement of a suspension; or
- You are replacing a license, or ID card confiscated by law enforcement or the courts.

To be issued a replacement you must present proof of legal presence, identity and date of birth.

If you are obtaining a replacement due to name change you must present acceptable proof of a legal name change (see page 10).

If you are changing your address or your address has changed since your last renewal or replacement, you must present proof of your current residence address (see page 11).

- Fee: $26.50 Driver license or permit including limited term
 $39.50 Identification card including limited term

Interim Document

If you meet all the requirements to obtain Oregon driving privileges or an Oregon ID card, you will be issued an interim card at the DMV office. The permanent card will be produced at a central location and mailed to your address on record. Because you will receive your card in the mail, it is important that your address on file with DMV is correct. Customers typically get their permanent cards in five to ten days. The post office will not forward your driver license, permit, or ID card. If your card cannot be delivered to the address the DMV has on file it will be returned to the DMV as undeliverable.

For more information, check DMV's website at www.oregondmv.com.

Parking Permits for Persons with Disabilities

Parking permits are available if you are temporarily or permanently disabled. Wheelchair Users disabled parking permits are available to persons whose physician indicates on the application that they qualify. Permits are also available to programs and families that transport persons with disabilities and to foreign visitors. There is no fee for the parking permits.

- You must have a current, valid Oregon driver license, ID card, or parking ID card to obtain a disabled parking permit.
- Permanent disabled permits expire on the same date as your driver license, or identification card.
- Temporary disabled permits are issued for a period of not more than six months and do not require a valid driver license, or ID card.
- You will need to submit an application and a certificate of disability (Form 265) signed by a doctor. You may call (503) 945-5000 to receive a form. The form is also available on the Internet at: www.oregondmv.com. Click on "Driver Forms."

Parking Identification Cards

Parking ID cards are issued to individuals who need a disabled parking permit and are not eligible for a driver license, or non-driver ID card or who are unable to appear in person at a DMV office. Parking ID cards are available only from DMV

Headquarters. You will need to submit Form 735-265NPP signed by your physician. You may call (503) 945-5114 to receive a form. The fee for a parking ID card is $44.50.

Filing an Accident Report

You must report any accident within 72 hours if:

- Damage to the vehicle you were driving is over $2,500;
- Damage to any vehicle is over $2,500 and any vehicle is towed from the scene as a result of damages from the accident;
- Injury or death resulted from the accident; or
- Damages to any one person's property other than a vehicle involved in the accident is over $2,500.

Persons should make a copy of the report before filing it with DMV.

Reinstating Your Driver License

- Requirements depend on the type of suspension. Call Salem DMV Headquarters at (503) 945-5000 for your reinstatement requirements.
- Fee: $75.00

VEHICLE INFORMATION

Vehicles used on Oregon's roads and highways must be titled and registered in Oregon, unless they are properly titled and registered in the owner's home state. To be eligible to register a vehicle in Oregon, you must be a resident of this state, be domiciled here, or otherwise be required to register your vehicle in Oregon, as is the case for certain commercial vehicles. If you are an Oregon resident, you must register your vehicle here. To do so, you must first have an Oregon title or apply for a title at the same time you register your vehicle.

Titling and Registering a New Passenger Vehicle

- Application forms are available at DMV offices, through the mail, on the Internet at www.oregondmv.com or by calling (503) 945-5000.
- Complete and sign the Application for Title and Registration, Form 735-226.
- Be sure to include the odometer reading.
- Attach a properly completed Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin for the vehicle.
- Your vehicle may be subject to the Oregon Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) Standards. If your vehicle is subject to LEV, DMV will need to verify compliance prior to registration being issued.
- Fees: $93.00 Title fee
$248.00* 4-year registration and plate fee for standard tree plates
- Tax 0.5% of sales price

For other plate options go to www.oregondmv.com

*County registration fees may also apply.

Titling and Registering Passenger Vehicles Moved to Oregon from Another State

- 1) Title application forms are available at DMV offices, through the mail, on the Internet at www.oregondmv.com, or by calling (503) 945-5000.
- 2) Complete and sign the Application for Title and Registration, Form 735-226.
- 3) Be sure to include the odometer reading. You do not have to provide an odometer reading if your vehicle is ten years old or older.
- 4) Bring your vehicle to a DMV field office to have the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) inspected.
Fee: $7.00
- 5) Your vehicle must pass the DEQ emissions test if you live within the Portland Metropolitan Service District or the Rogue Valley in Jackson County. For information call Portland area (503) 229-5066; Medford area (877) 476-0583.
- 6) If your vehicle passes DEQ, you will be issued a Certificate of Compliance. You must present the certificate with your application to DMV if you are applying for registration.
- 7) Your vehicle may be subject to the Oregon Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) Standards. If your vehicle is subject to LEV, DMV or DEQ will need to verify compliance prior to registration being issued.
- 8) Bring the out-of-state title to DMV. Be sure you have the signatures needed to release interest for any name that won't be shown on the Oregon title.
- 9) If the title to your vehicle is in the possession of a lien holder, you will need to forward the DMV paperwork, including evidence of a VIN inspection and DEQ compliance (if required), together with appropriate title and registration fees to the lien holder of the vehicle. DMV can provide you with an instructional transmittal letter for your lien holder. Your lien holder will forward the original title, the DMV paperwork and fees to DMV Headquarters in Salem, Oregon. DMV will return an Oregon title to your lien holder and forward to you by mail the registration card, plates and stickers.

NOTE

Transactions requiring documents from lien holders cannot be processed by DMV until all requirements, including receipt of the original out-of-state title from your lien holder, have been met. In order to expedite your request, contact your lien holder for correct mailing address information as your title may be held in a different location than where you send your payments.

- 10) If you purchased the vehicle from an out of state dealer and the odometer has less than 7,500 miles you will owe a tax of 0.5% of the sales price.
- 11) If the out-of-state title is either a junk certificate, junk title, or similar ownership document, DMV will not issue an Oregon certificate of title under ORS 803.045.
- 12) Fees: $7.00 VIN inspection
 $93.00 Title fee
 $136.00* Registration and plates for standard tree plates

For other plate types go to www.oregondmv.com

*County registration fees may also apply.
